

Coating is foamed to give excellent dry and wet grip

Foamed finish absorbs vibration, minor impacts; offers soft, flexible feel

PVC coating extends to knuckles to provide liquid protection

Knuckle coating provides additional protection from mechanical hazards

Tough PVC coating for superior abrasion resistance

Launderable for added value and longer life

Seamless, 'Stretch-Fit' insulated liner provides warmth and flexibility to -15° F

Color-coded, inner-cuff stitching aids sorting by size after laundering

NorthFlex Cold Grip™ (NF11HD) is one of 18 different general purpose and cut-resistant styles in the NorthFlex Series

! NorthFlex Cold Grip™. Gloves your workers will really warm up to.

NorthFlex Cold Grip gloves are insulated to provide comfort and warmth in sub-zero conditions, while maintaining dexterity and flexibility. So productivity stays up even when temperatures go down to -15 F. Our broad line of NorthFlex gloves offers unsurpassed durability, dexterity and comfort, along with superior cut and abrasion resistance for any application. And if you need a hand choosing the right gloves to fit your needs and budget, our experts can help. Just call 888-422-3798.

▶ TAKE THE NORTHFLEX GLOVE CHALLENGE!

If our gloves don't outperform your current gloves, they're FREE. Call (888) 422-3798 today to take the challenge!

Offer good for qualified buyers only.

by Honeywell

www.northsafety.com

Note: Working temperature recommendations are made in good faith but may not apply to all individuals in all situations.
 ©2009 North Safety Products North Safety Products is a global DSM Dyneema® license holder and North Dyneema® gloves come with the assurance that they have been tested and approved by DSM themselves. The guarantee of pure Dyneema® can only come from a licensed manufacturer. Dyneema® is a registered trademark of Royal DSM N.V.